Welcome from our Chair

Welcome to Our Autumn/Winter Performance Programme

Join us as we present an exciting season of theatre, music, comedy, and dance, offering something for everyone. As the seasons turn, you'll find a warm welcome in our stunning venues—Paisley Town Hall, Paisley Arts Centre, and Johnstone Town Hall—as we host a diverse array of performances to inspire, entertain, and captivate audiences.

You really are spoiled for choice, whether it's music to rock to, with the fantastic Hue & Cry or the grace of Tchaikovsky's Nutcracker by Crown Ballet, there's sure to be something for all audiences. You can even enjoy a lunchtime treat, when A Play, A Pie and A Pint comes to Paisley, with locally made pies thrown in!

There's not one, but two National Theatre screenings recorded live from the West End, with the incredible Imelda Staunton in Mrs Warren's Profession and Jack Lowden and Martin Freeman in The Fifth Step. There's comedy from Karen Dunbar, Craig Hill and Nina Conti, among others. And look out for the chills of Halloween and the countdown to Christmas, including our Winter programme and the fabulous PACE panto, Snow White.

Check out our amazing programme and get booking!

by A&A Bakers of Paisley.

Co-presented with A Play, A Pie and
A Pint and The Gaiety Theatre Ayr

Following a sell-out run in our Spring Season, Scotland's iconic lunchtime theatre experience returns to Paisley with a murderous new musical. Madeleine Smith, a Glasgow socialite living in Blythswood Square, was accused of a secret affair and poisoning her lover to death. The trial ended with a rare 'Not Proven' verdict, but now Plume, an aspiring pamphleteer, is working out which version of the story to tell. Was Madeleine innocent or guilty?

Inspired by the scandalous real-life story of a murder trial in 19th century Glasgow, The Glasgow Poisoner is a new musical by Tom Cooper and Jen McGregor that explores our obsession with true crime and female killers, then and now.

National Theatre
Live

Five-time Olivier Award winner Imelda Staunton (The Crown) joins her real-life daughter Bessie Carter (Bridgerton) for the first time, playing mother and daughter in George Bernard Shaw's incendiary moral classic. Vivie Warren is a woman ahead of her time. Her mother, however, is a product of that old patriarchal order. Exploiting it has earned Mrs Warren a fortune—but at what cost?

National Theatre Live captures the magic of the very best of British theatre. Live from the West End, this new production reunites Staunton with director Dominic Cooke (Follies, Good), exploring morality, tradition and progress.

Bernard Shaw's masterpiece is brought to life in a bold new production that the critics say is "magnificent" The Independent.

Join Chris Alexander and Alan Orr
this Christmas for PACE Theatre
Company's 36th annual panto,
Snow White.

The party is on for Snow White's 18th birthday, but a royal tantrum is about to spoil the fun!

When the vain Queen's Magic Mirror declares our DIY-obsessed heroine the fairest of them all, she unleashes her bumbling son, Prince Barry, with a dastardly demand: get rid of her! Cast into the woods, Snow White finds refuge with seven of the silliest miners to ever swing a pickaxe, but the Queen has one last trick up her sleeve: a poisoned apple that will put Snow White to sleep forever.

They say only a true love's kiss can break the spell... but in a land of laughter and mayhem, who will it be?

With a whole host of hilarious characters, fantastic original music, and the liveliest, most energetic chorus of young people—this is one night out that no-one will want to miss!
